PM – ArtHaus takes you Off to See the Wizard – We’re off to see the Wizard in this magically creative art camp. There’s sure to be Munchkin mayhem as we paint vibrant and cheerful landscapes gleaming with emeralds and rubies. Wizardly wonders created in clay, a 3D collaged wicked witch’s lair, and a not-so-cowardly lion are just a few creations that The Great & Powerful Oz has in store for us. Don’t miss out as this week is sure to be wicked cool! All new lessons and all materials will be provided. Campers will be divided into groups according to ages.

- Week 9: August 4 – 8

AM – Into the Wild with ArtHaus– This week will be a wild art adventure exploring inspirational artists who truly thought outside of the box! Nick Cave’s unusual, wearable sculptures made from a variety of materials will connect campers with a new way of seeing clothing. We will explore textiles and found objects to create our own mini outfits for our wild and imaginary creatures. Another wild project will be inspired by Alexander Calder’s unusual mobiles. Using wire and found objects, our campers will make their own colorful, and perhaps musical, mobiles. Large, colorful plant sculptures made with pool tubes, and other materials, will honor Yayoi Kusama’s famously bold 3D works. In this fun and wacky week campers will push boundaries to unleash their own untamed creativity! All new lessons and all materials will be provided. Campers will be divided into groups according to ages.

PM - Get to know the Masters - Travel through time and get to know the world's most famous artists! We'll delve into the lives and works of renowned artists, all while exploring their unique styles and techniques. Learn about famous artists like DaVinci, Van Gogh, Monet, Kahlo, and Picasso through engaging stories and interactive activities. Using cardboard and other materials, campers will create their own version of a DaVinci inspired fantastical flying machine. They will learn how Picasso loved to make what he didn't yet know how to make. We will be inspired by his words, "I am always doing that which I cannot do, in order that I may learn how to do it." Campers will be creative problem solvers and art engineers as they create with clay, paint, wire, and a variety of mixed media materials.
